1962 News from the Whitehorse Star

BURIED IN TRENCH

Two men were buried in a trench yesterday afternoon at the vocational school site when an earth and gravel wall collapsed on them. Most seriously injured was Ronald Burnett of Whitehorse who received a broken leg and a broken pelvis. Vernon Ekland received also a broken pelvis.

When the wall came down, the two men were working close together in the trench being dug to accommodate sewer and water pipes. They were completely covered by the slide but, fortunately, Bennett and White Superintendent Nelson Ford knew their exact location and, when the rescue effort began, he could pinpoint their location and dug them out.

The trench at the point of collapse was approximately 14 feet deep. About the first five feet were frozen ground but beneath that the gravel was loose.

Both city fire departments rushed to the scene and also workmen from other parts of the city were called to assist. It was Ekland's second trip to the hospital in three weeks. He was just released after a broken ankle healed.

LIQUOR VOTE SET FOR JUNE 23

All Yukon residents, 19 years and up, will be asked to answer this question on Monday, June 23:

"Are you in favour of lowering the legal age for the consumption of alcoholic beverages from 21 years to 19 years of age?"

Commissioner James Smith announced the date and terms of the plebiscite this morning. It is believed to be the first time in Canada that underage voters will have had an opportunity to express their opinions on a question which directly affected them.

There will be no enumeration of voters, and no voters list compiled for the plebiscite, which will be conducted by Federal Returning Officer Harold J. MacDonald of Whitehorse. Instead, each voter will swear an affidavit that they are of the full age of 19 and they were ordinarily resident in the Yukon Territory on March 20, 1969. This was the date on which Yukon Territorial Council approved the idea of the plebiscite being held.

DAWSON MAN WINS TOUGHEST MAN TITLE

B.C. Teenager Takes Heavyweight Crown
 by Chuck Tobin
 Star Reporter

The Dawson City man who represented Canada in boxing at the 1982 Commonwealth Games in Brisbane, Australia was back in the ring Thursday night in front of 1,200 to 1,500 fans at Takhini Arena.

George Mason, 32, earned the title as the Toughest man in the Yukon and $1,000 in the 70 kg (154 lbs) and under category.

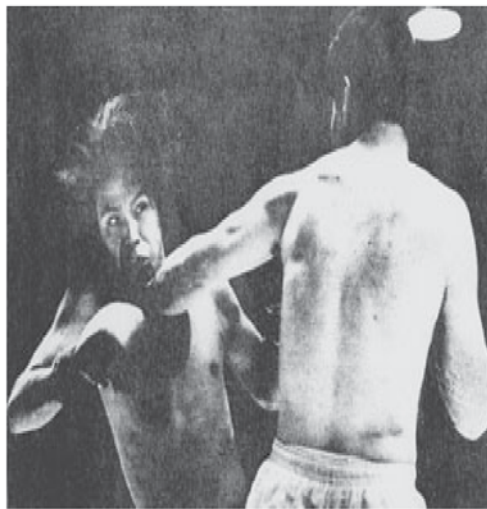

Shane Sutcliffe of Nanaimo, B. C. won the heavy weight category of 82 kg (180 lbs) and over and Jeff MacPheat of Whitehorse took home the purse in the middle weight division.

The event was billed as the Toughest Man in the Yukon competition with invitations going out to street fighters, bikers, martial artists, brawlers and bouncers.

It was actually an amateur boxing card where conditioning an experience proved more valuable than braun.

Kevin White, a 32-year-old Whitehorse man who challenged 16-year-old Shane Sutcliffe for the heavyweight title, voluntarily withdrew after two rounds because he simply ran out of gas.

"When I sat down after the second round I thought I was in there for about 10 minutes," said White of the minute-and-a-half round. "I was too tired to throw
