AN ATLIN ROAD AGENT

Masked Highwayman Holds Up a Stage in Real Western Style and Gets $3.55

Atlin has had a genuine stage holdup. The work of the robber was shockingly crude. His method, or rather lack of it, demonstrated that he was not an expert in the profession, and that he was thoroughly in want of experience.

It happened Monday evening, Sept. 16, about 8 o'clock. Walker's stage was enroute to Pine City from Atlin when a masked highwayman stepped out in the road and at the point of a Winchester commanded the driver to halt. The command was obeyed and the passengers were ordered to get out of the stage and line up with their hands in the air. Four of the passengers, Messrs. D. Patterson, C.H. Dewitt, J. Dillon and Mrs. Nelson took to the woods. The others were Driver Walker, Photographer Draper, T.Shirley, W. Waters, J.Emmett and Miss Maud Biggs.

They had considerable money about them, but most of them managed to lose their purses in the stage before leaving it. The highwayman's order to them, therefore, to throw their money in a pile on the road resulted in only $3.55 being contributed to the road agent. This he sulkily picked up, and backing into the brush, he disappeared.

The police were immediately notified and vigorous search made for the daring robber, but up to late reports he has not been caught.

1902 News from the Whitehorse Star

- Has Gone to the Outside -

His Name Appeared in the Printed Passenger Lists -- Fournier Arraigned and Remanded for Seven Days -- Did Not Plead.

Dawson, Aug. 30 - It has been ascertained that Ed La Belle, the partner of Peter Fournier, who is now under arrest here suspected of being implicated in the murder of three men near Ogilvie the middle of last June, left for the outside on July 22nd as a first-class passenger on the steamer Columbian and though there hangs over his head a suspicion of having abetted in the commission of two or three murders, he traveled under his real name and made no secrecy of his having departed. His name, with the other passengers, was printed in the local papers at the time, and the list is now on file at the police station and at the White Pass office.

Fournier was arraigned on the 23rd inst. in the police court on the charge of murder in the first degree, in having killed Leon Boutillette. He did not plead, but was remanded for seven days, when he will enter a plea.

It is now stated that the report published that $400 was found on the person of Fournier, is erroneous, and that he had no money when arrested.

The police have received the photographs of three of the five men who left Whitehorse together on the trip down river. They are Leon Boutillette, Alphonso Constantin and Beaudoin.

The body of the former was found near Indian River, and from a tag on a key chain was the name which led to the identification of the remains. The body contained three gunshot wounds which told that he was shot from behind, and as he turned to see his assailants was shot twice through the head.

The body of Beaudoin was found with a rope on one arm and one on an ankle with slip knots and loops on the ends, which convince the police that the man was murdered and then weighted with stones which dropped off by the continual jolting over the gravel bottom of the river. His head was crushed and there could be no doubt that he also was murdered.

Alphonso Contantin, not showing up in Dawson, can be set down as being the third victim. He came to this country in '98 and became interested on Last Chance.

Beaudoin was a native of Beauce county, Quebec, and had just graduated from college when he concluded to come to the Klondike probably on the representations of Constantin. He was 23 years of age and a bright young man, with the physique of one who is not satisfied with the humdrum life of the east.

The three left Montreal June 4 and reached Whitehorse June 12. June 16 they started in a small boat in company with two other men, who joined the party at Whitehorse.

The body of Boutillette was found on July 16, and that of Beaudoin on August 1. The remains of a man found near Selkirk so badly decomposed that the body was hardly to be recognized, may be the third man of the latest river mystery.

CPA DEATH TOLL 52

Canadian Pacific Airline's Flight 21 exploded and crashed last Thursday afternoon on its way north from Vancouver, killing all 52 people aboard. Five Whitehorse residents were among the dead. Seven other northern families suffered losses. It was the first fatal crash on the northern run.

The DC-6B was fifty miles north of Ashcroft B.C. and thirty miles west of 100 Mile House when eye witnesses said there appeared to be an explosion, the tail section dropped off and the plane plummeted into the ground. A pall of smoke was spotted by B.C. Forestry lookouts and a small aircraft dispatched to the scene minutes later. The crash occurred just before five o'clock.

At 4:40, about 15 minutes before the crash, the captain radioed that he was changing course slightly to avoid turbulence. Moments later, the stricken aircraft made three desperate "Mayday" calls to the Prince George airport. Then silence.

The plane left Vancouver at 3:30 p.m. and was scheduled to land at Prince George at 5:20. It had not yet picked up other connecting passengers at Fort St. John.

News of the disaster spread quickly in Whitehorse and anxious families here kept long distance telephone lines jammed for several hours. CPA officials and RCMP officers contacted next of kin as soon as the passenger list had been verified from Vancouver.

Strangely intact among undamaged trees, wreckage of DC6B as seen from the air.
